INDIAN WAR.

Details of the Three Days Encounter With the Forces of Chief Joseph, Near Cottonwood.

The Volunteers and Regulars are Badly Handed by Colonel Perry—Lieutenant Raines and His Entire Command Butchered for Want of Support.

General Howard Confident of Success
His Forces Being Concentrated
Near Cottonwood.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 10.—Dispatches from Lewiston, via Portland, gives details of encounters with Indians, on the 3d, 4th and 5th instants, near Cottonwood. On Tuesday Colonel Whipple sent out Foster and Baird scouting for Indians in the direction of General Howard's camp, on Salmon river. They had not gone far when they met three or four Indians, who ran them back toward camp.
Baird was unhorsed, but escaped. Forster reached camp. Whipple ordered his command in readiness to move, and in the meantime Lieutenant Raines, with Foster and eleven men, were sent in advance to reconnoitre.
Raines and his men rode over the first ridge, this side of Cottonwood, and down in a side ravine where the road crosses, before the ascent of crags and the mountains, and were attacked before Foster could get to him after he heard the firing. Raines and his whole party were killed, including Foster. Whipple's command came forward and formed in line of battle on the east side of the ravine, and the Indians on the west, all in open ground about one thousand yards apart and with only the ravine between them.
Here they remained menacing each other about two hours, till darkness came, when Whipple returned to his camp and the Indians passed over to a point on Cottonwood trail to the crags crossing. No more was done that night.

On the next morning, Whipple and his men started this way to meet Colonel Perry, who was expected with a supply train from Lapwan, and kept out his skirmish line. Along the route they met Colonel Perry with his train, near Board House, and escorted him to the camp on Cottonwood creek.
Baird and two men arrived soon after, from Mount Idaho, and about five in the afternoon the rifle pits were all manned and two Gatlings placed in position. The Indians made several attempts to storm the rifle pits, but were kept at a distance. About nine o'clock the firing ceased for the night.

On the morning of the fifth, two couriers arrived from Howard, chased into camp by the Indians. Soon after, the Indians moved their camp, with about sixteen hundred head of stock, across the prairie in the direction of the Cottonwood? No movement was made to intercept.
Soon after Captain Randall and sixteen volunteers from Mount Idaho appeared. About one hundred and fifty Indians intercepted at the junction of the Elk City trail with the stage road.
At this crisis, being seen from Perry's position on the hill at the rifle pits, the colonel was urged to go with his troops to their rescue, to which he replied that it was no use; they were gone up. He would not order his men to the rescue. The volunteers say that their captain, seeing his position, ordered them to charge and break the line of the Indians. They dash over toward the creek and bottom, dismount and return the Indian fire, and held their position partly under cover of a hill, until the force at the Cottonwood could reach them. The command was no sooner given than Captain Randall and sixteen men made a charge. They broke through the Indians' lines, reached the position named, dismounted and returned fire. In the charge Captain Randall was mortally wounded, Benjamin Evans killed, and three others wounded. They fought there for an hour and kept the Indians at bay. In about half an hour after it was known that the Indians had the volunteers in a tight place, Colonel Perry gave orders for fifty men to go to their relief. It was quickly obeyed, and they were relieved about one hour after the charge. No pursuit of the Indians was ordered, but a retreat was made to camp, and no pursuit had been made since, up to the time Morrill left.

WASHINGTON, July 10.—The following was received at the war department this morning:
SAN FRANCISCO, July 9, 1877.
To the Adjutant General, United States Army, Washington.
The following telegram, dated Craig Ferry, Salmon river, 6 p. m., July 5th, just received:
Green's advance, or a rumor of it, turned Joseph back, and as I crossed the Salmon to the enemy's side, he retreated. I had provided for this, by ordering a cavalry force, with two Gatling guns, back to the Cottonwood.
Captain Perry, and a portion of the train from Lapwan, formed a junction with the Cottonwood force, or very near doing so. As Joseph appeared on the road near that place, the cavalry forced him back southward. I am re-crossing the Salmon on the Indian trail, and hope he cannot get back to the Snake country, without disaster.

His turning the right flank of the troops with me has not done other harm than to create alarm in the rear, except the loss reported of Lieutenant Raines, of the first cavalry, and ten men sent out by Captain Whipple, as his advance. The troops are hearty, have made long marches, and are confident of success. I shall push my infantry and artillery to-morrow to near Cottonwood, and then I am concentrated.
HOWARD, Major General.

AMERICAN HEBREWS.

Fourth Annual Council—Fourteen Public Buildings, Fifteen Newspapers and Magazines and Four Orders Attest the Advancement of Judaism.

PHILADELPHIA, July 10.—The fourth annual council of the American Hebrew congregation, convened this morning in St. George's hall. A permanent organization was effected by electing the following officers: President, Hon. B. F. Peixotto, late consul to Roumania; Vice-President, Philip Levens, of Philadelphia; Secretary, Lipman Levy, of Cincinnati; Assistant Secretary, Louis Abraham, of Washington City. Various reports were referred to proper committees.
The report of the board of delegates shows that there are under the control of the Jews, fourteen public institutions, some of which are not sectarian in their benefits; fifteen newspapers and magazines devoted to the cause of Judaism published and edited by Jews, and four Jewish orders or secret societies, the objects of which are the advancement of Judaism, mutual assistance and charity.

WASHINGTON.

Hayes, Disgusted With Radicalism, Abandons His Scheme of Defeating a Democratic Organization of the House, and is Looking to Action that Will Secure Genuine Democratic Support.

WASHINGTON, July 10.—General E.
B. Thomas, of Atlanta, is the most probably man for marshal of Georgia.
A democrat, all say, will get the place.
Shrewd politicians express themselves satisfied that the president has returned to his first intention, of giving a share of the southern offices to southern democrats. It is known that the president abandoned this intention at the instance of General Comly and others, with a view of conciliating Blaine, who, he finds, will not conciliate. Southern democrats senators have again secured the president's ear.
It is becoming evident that when the edge of battle is reached, the president must have some kind of support from democratic senators. All hope of defeating a democratic organization of the house is abandoned, and the president is now looking to some action which will secure a genuine support of his measures from the majority in that body. Hayes has cut loose from Blaine.

RETURNING BOARD.

If Hayes Carried Louisiana, Why All This Fuss, Mr. Lawrence?—Wells and Anderson, if Quittless, Should Be Unseated.

CHICAGO, July 10.—A dispatch to the New York Times says: The Chicago Inter Ocean publishes the following: Judge Lawrence, of this city, who was a member of the late Louisiana commission, states, in regard to the other members of the returning board, that it is a gross violation of the pledges made by the Nicholls government. It was the distinct understanding that there should be no political prosecutions. Judge Lawrence said he had no doubt these legal proceedings are instituted by Bourbon democrats in Louisiana who are opposed to the Nicholls government, and that he and his friends will use their influence to carry out the pledges made in good faith, and put an end to these prosecutions, or at least Governor Nicholls will exercise his pardoning powers, if they should become necessary.

AN INTRUDER.

A Man Enters Through An Open Window Where Two Young Ladies Are Sleeping.

The warm weather causes our citizens to throw open their windows to catch any stray zephyrs that may be moving about at night. This practice is sometimes productive of unpleasant results. On Sunday night the family of Mr. Solomon, who reside on Commerce street, retired, two young ladies occupying a room by themselves on the ground floor, their windows being open. About one o'clock one of the young ladies awoke, and heard a noise under the window. With fear and trembling she laid there, when suddenly a man leaped through the window into the room. The lady gave a shriek, which startled every one in the house, and caused their hair to "stand on ends like quills upon a fretful porcupine." Nobody in the house was any more frightened than the intruder. With one bound he reached the door of the room, bolted out through the hall, and over the prostrate form of a man who was lying by the front door to keep cool. The old gentleman tumbled down stairs, blundering in hand, but the robber, or whoever he was, had escaped in the darkness. It is a pity that the fugitive did not receive a brace of blue pills as a memento of the occasion.

FOREIGN.

The Turks and Russians Charged With Ruthless Devastation and Inhuman Murders in Bulgaria.

The Russian Left Wing in Armenia Has Been Driven Across the Frontier, and is Being Pursued in Georgia by Ismael Pasha.

The Turks, After a Severe and Stubborn Defense, are Forced to Evacuate Tirnova.

[Night Associated Press Report.]
LONDON, July 10.—The Russians have advanced as far as Monaster in the direction of Bud, about twenty-five miles southwest of Rostchuk. A battle is believed to be imminent in this direction.
Russian detachments, marching on Selva and Pleura, which are unfortified, have burned four villages between those points.
The bombardment of Rostchuk from Stobasla has ceased for four days. It is believed the Russians will endeavor to take the siege guns across the Danube for the siege of Rostchuk.
Turkish accounts charge the Russians with ruthless devastation in Bulgaria, and murders and outrages against the Mussulman. Russians make similar charges against the Turks with reference to the Bulgarian christians.

A special from Constantinople to the Standard says complete anarchy prevails at Cable, beyond Thia. The contending armies, the Bulgarian and Circassian Tartars, are murdering each other indiscriminately.

Ex-Colonel Valentine Baker will accompany Radif pasha to Adriano-pole.

LONDON, July 10.—It is officially announced that the Russian left wing has been driven across the Russian frontier, pursued by Ismael pasha. A deputation of citizens of Kara have visited Mukhtar pasha.

[Night Associated Press Report.]
LONDON, July 10.—The town of Varna, of the Turkish quadrilateral, was declared in a state of siege on Sunday.

Turkish men of war are cruising about the mouth of the Danube, seeking an entrance. Rhedo seekers are driving a thriving business.
The Russians have occupied Tiro-nova, after a severe conflict. The Turks opposed the invaders with their characteristic stubbornness, but the Russian cavalry behaved splendidly during the fight, and the Turks were compelled to evacuate the town.

A dispatch from Paris to the Times says that intelligence received there states that twenty-five Servians, deputies of the extreme left, have resigned their seats in the skuptschina, because the address of the house in reply to Prince Milan's speech was not framed in accordance with the views of the minority. These resignations render a quorum impossible.
Elections to fill vacancies are to be held immediately.

Vice-Admiral Hornby, commanding the British fleet in Biskia bay has arrived in Constantinople, and will have an audience with the Sultan.

The Daily Telegraph's correspondents with the Turkish headquarters in Asia, estimates Mukhtar pasha's force at twenty-eight thousand men.

The Telegraph's Vienna dispatch says General Skobloff, Jr., the hero of Koknad, is badly wounded and is likely to lose an arm and a foot.

The Report that Germany Was About to Reoccupy the Eliaz Government setts—Several Buildings Destroyed.

have had the tornado. Salmon Falls paper mills, recently burned, but partially rebuilt, were prostrated. Many other buildings were prostrated, and crops damaged.

former winning by half length. Time, 21 minutes, 31 seconds. The fastest double scull race recorded.

Jack O'Neil... Stage Manager.
Bob O'Neil... Leader Orchestra.

There will be presented every day this week the beautiful "Domestic" drama of "Cheaply Bought," with a splendid cast, magnificent wardrobe, and scenic effects. During the play, will be introduced to the audience a magnificently braided, three and a half dollar suit. A beautiful three tallered, seventy-five cent kid. A magnificent French one dollar corset, and sundry other articles at prices so "amazingly low" that they will no doubt be an attractive and amusing feature of the entertainment. Doors open at six o'clock. Business commences a few minutes after. Go early to avoid the rush. M. SHER.

Personal.

Mr. Faulkner, of the Waco Examiner, is in the city, for only a brief stay.

The Rev. L. H. Carhart left here last night for the north with his family.
We wish him success wherever he goes.

Mr. John A. Presnett, the gentlemanly and popular representative of the great boot and shoe house of Chicago, C. M. Henderson & Co., is in the city, a guest at the Le Grand.

Dr. William F. Starley, formerly of Corsicana, now of Mexico, was in the city yesterday. Dr. Starley is a young man, but stands very high in his profession. We trust he spent the day pleasantly.

Mr. W. H. Martin, of that sterling little frontier paper the Brownwood Banner, is in the city, and will remain a day or two. Now is the time for Dallas merchants to make their business known to the people of that region.

Installation of Officers.

Last night Peat Brith Lodge No.
195 selected the following officers for the ensuing year: E. M. Kahn, president; M. Wohl, vice-president; Gerson Meyer, secretary; D. Goslin, lecturer; A. M. Friend, treasurer; M.
Ullman, monitor; H. Lucas, assistant monitor; L. Craft, warden. After the election the lodge repaired to Bogel's and partook of an elegant collation prepared with that consummate skill for which our friend Bogel is so justly celebrated. Several happy speeches were made, and the party passed the evening delightfully in enjoying "a feast of reason and a flow of soul."

A "Stalwart" Defiance.

Burlington Hawkeye (Rep.) If President Hayes meant what he said in his noncommittal order, we cannot see how he can fail to remove the officeholders who took part in the recent republican state convention. We would regret to see the heads of any of these gentlemen fall, but for the life of us we cannot see how the president can fail to enforce his order and expect to retain the respect of the sham reformers.

Frank Must Be Made Infamous.
Boston Post: Charles Francis Adams has done the country substantial service in repeating the warning against the repetition of the gigantic fraud by which the popular will was deflected on the 4th of March last. Whatever courtesy the people may bestow upon the representative of the executive department, whoever he may be, it must not detract from a constant antagonism against a branch of public virtue, or in pair vigilance in protecting the republic against the repetition of a deadly assault upon its organic life.
"Silence and acquiescence in the inequity which placed Hayes in the executive chair" cannot be permitted, as Mr. Cox well said before Tammany.
It is neither just to him, polite to the country, nor safe for the foundations upon which free institutions are based.
